

Activity Sheet

Exploring Inherent Requirements and Reasonable Adjustments

Below is an example of a template that can be used during the consultation phase to help identify and document conversations about potential barriers and possible reasonable adjustments in a unit of competency. Included is the: unit title, unit intent (what is the unit wanting to achieve), elements and performance criteria, performance evidence (required evidence of tasks), suggestions/recommendations of reasonable adjustments and agreed reasonable adjustments to be included in the Individual/Access Plan and implemented by the program area.

National Unit Code and Title:
Summary of the intent of the Unit:
Elements/Performance Criteria	Assessment requirements, evidence and conditions	Inherent requirements	Assessment Tasks	Potential Reasonable Adjustments

Elements/Performance Criteria	Assessment requirements, evidence and conditions	Inherent requirements	Assessment Tasks	Potential Reasonable Adjustments
Comments				